FOREWORD

Our aim in publishing this, the "Torch" of 1947, is to look back on the progress we have made, to pause and view our present activities, and to look forward to a better and more successful Northampton High School which we support with youthful hearts, full of loyalty, and ever ready for service.

DEDICATION

We, the Seniors of 1947, dedicate this volume of "The Torch" to Miss Constance S. Taylor, who retired from our faculty at Northampton High School in June, 1946.

In so doing, we hope to express our love, respect, and gratitude to one who so faithfully and patiently molded and enriched the lives of those with whom she came in contact.

We are a better and stronger Senior Class and Northampton High because of her teachings, wise counsellings, faithful services, and Christian character which so strongly shone forth during her years with us.

In behalf of Northampton High School we want to wish for her many years of happiness, health, and associations with those who love and honor her.

OUR SCHOOL SONG

ALMA MATER (N. H. S.)

Standing near the Chesapeake
With its waters clear,
Looking toward a great old ocean
Does our school appear;
Near the homestead of the Indians,
Who in former times
Roved the paths of old Northampton,
In our pleasant climes.

Chorus:

Oh Northampton! dear Northampton
Praise her to the sky!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater
Hail! Northampton High!

II

From her walls so calmly standing
She will serve our Youth;
May her sons and daughters laud her,
In their search for Truth;
Marching onward, ever onward
We revere her name,
May the future smile upon her
Seeing then her fame.

A REVIEW IN RHYME OF CLASS OF '47

Prologue

One well-remembered September morn
  There "huddled" at Northampton High
A hundred uncertain souls dubbed "Frosh,"
  Uncertain, wary, and shy.

- - - -

I

They soon were in the swing of things,
  And leaders were chosen, too;
"Lit" Johnson was the president
  They followed all year through.
The class play was "The Minstrel,"
  Starring Gloria, Mickey, and "Bo."
But soon the year's end was in sight--
  And still so much to know!

II

The next September found a change.
  As "Sophs" they sauntered in;
They made new "greenies" realize
  That learning's hard to win.
Nothing special marks this year
  Except unbounded hopes.
Things happened, and the time flew by
  For they had learned the ropes.

III

Hooray! The Junior year had come--
  Great times and much hard work!
Chemistry formulas and physical "ed"--
  All fun, and who wanted to shirk?
Last came the Junior-Senior prom
  With songs and thrills galore.
And then vacation. Now to learn
  What Seniors have in store.

IV

They're Dignified Seniors--yes, at last!
  But preparation! Whew!
Debates, term papers, English, French--
  And who'll pass Latin II?
The rings should come this week or next.
  All to soon comes Commencement night.
The time has flown; we're sorry, too!
  We'll miss our school with all our might!

--Betty L. Travis, '48

TO EACH HIS OWN

To the class of '48 we leave our dignity--it's in very good condition--it wasn't used much.

To the '49ers we leave our good looks.

To the class of 1950 we leave our great wit and charm.

To the class of 1951 we just leave. . . . . .

To Mr. Hamilton we leave a soundproof office so he won't be disturbed by future practicing in the auditorium.

To Miss Jacob we leave a quiet auditorium.

To Miss Ellen Scott we leave an autographed copy of Robert Frost's poems to read to all future English classes.

To Mrs. Kellam we leave a motor scooter, called the "Coffee Cup Special," to facilitate travel between her homeroom and the lunchroom.

To Miss Justis we leave a bigger 'n better Freshman-Sophomore Glee Club.

To Mr. Wynne we leave plenty of free periods in which his debating team can practice.

To Miss Palmer we leave a ready-made annual.

To Mr. Jeffries we leave two dozen erasers, one for each color of chalk.

To Mrs. Smalley we leave a good phonograph and an abundant supply of classical records with which to conduct a music appreciation class.

To Mr. Turner's chemistry class we leave chemical equations that balance automatically.

To the Y. S. O. we leave a succession of "name" bands to play at next year's dances.

To the Good Citizen's Club we leave a championship debating team.

To the Dramatic Club we leave an unlimited fund for the purpose of buying stage equipment and make-up.

To the Glee Club we leave a few alto voices.

To the lunchroom, we leave salt shakers for every table.

To Mr. Arnold we leave an easy chair equipped with a push-button device to shut the front door.

To Miss Hand we leave a new mimeographing machine.

To the Home Economics Department, we leave a guinea pig to practice "that latest recipe" on.

To the library we leave a copy of 1000 Jokes to create the proper atmosphere.

To the Commercial Department we leave bookkeeping practice sets complete with answers.

To anyone who wants it, Vaughn Rue leaves his ability to go to sleep--anywhere! Any time!

To Jack Hart Sturgis, John Widgen leaves his hearty laugh.

To Harry Fred Bender, Randy Warren leaves his popularity with members of the opposite sex.

To Lucy Lawson, Margaret Crockett leaves her skill at typing.

To Sonny Simpson, Warren Clark leaves the captaincy of the ball team.

To Dickie Bowen, Tom Burton leaves his agility at throwing snowballs.

To Sonny Scott, Bobby Nordstrom leaves his popularity with both girls and boys.

To Kitty Richardson, Jeanette Underhill leaves her boisterous personality.

To Evelyn Wise, Rosa Dennis leaves her vivacity.

To Betty Scott, Gloria Flax leaves her capacity for leadership.

To Margaret Henderson, Rita Jarvis leaves her beauty.

To the Junior boys, Bobby Harris leaves Margaret Ann Ward. Take good care of her, fellas!

To Dize Savage, Sonny Moore leaves his prowess at boxing.

To "Jukie" Upshur, Lucy Addison leaves her "Powers Girl" figure.

To the entire student body and faculty of N. H. S., we leave a new school, equipped with a complete gym, an auditorium with good acoustics, and all other things necessary for the great Northampton High School of the future.

THE BEST YEARS OF OUR LIVES

JUST ME

The only two important events of 1929 were the crash of the stock market and my arrival on November 15, just ahead of a bad snow storm.

I lived in Norfolk until the tender age of three when my parents moved to the country. There were all kinds of mischief for a small girl to get into. One of my favorite pastimes was to get hung on the barb wire fence by the seat of my blue jeans and yell for help. Another time I almost scared my mother to death by calmly walking into the house with a snake in my hand.

I started elementary school at Capeville and finished in Cheriton. Then came high school at Northampton. Now, I really felt grown up. I managed to pull through the first three years with fair grades.

Like all girls I have had my share of crushes, but at the present time I am concentrating on the one and only, who likes movies, dancing, and almost all the things I do.

My senior year has had an added attraction. I have been secretary to Mr. Jiggs Dunton. When my high school education is over and I enter the business world, I hope I will find a person as nice as Mr. Dunton for a "boss."

Glenna Elliott

GROWING PAINS

It all began when I was born six weeks too late, and it looks as if I've been a little late in everything ever since--even to catching the school bus mornings. I grew up on a farm a long way from civilization. Because of this, my sister and I had to find our own entertainment without other associates. One day, before I started to school, my sister, Jean, and I went to Gull Island. We brought home collections of gull eggs and sand dollars. The next morning the back porch was full of baby gulls. They did not live long, but while they were alive we really had a time. It reminds me of a proverb: "Never count your gulls before they hatch."

While I was in grammar school I had a number of animal pets. Mom and Dad bought a Chesapeake retriever the year I was born; he lived to be seven years old. How he managed to live that long is a mystery to me. I was always poking my fingers into his beautiful, pleading, yellow eyes, and pulling his long silky ears. My pony was the most beloved pet on my list. I have him now and we are still great pals. My love for animals was even extended to toys. My favorites were little teddy bears. Santa brought me a teddy bear at Christmas for four years in succession.

Since I have been in high school things have been very hard for me. Having grown up a "tomboy," longing for the out-of-doors, I have really neglected my school work. Because of this same thing, I am always getting into mischief, mischief that I will always remember.

Many things have happened during my high school days that I will carry among my sweetest memories all through life. However, I'm quite sure this, my senior year, has been the most eventful, exciting, and glorious year of high school for me. When I am old I am sure I will sigh for the glorious days at Northampton High School.

Margaret N. Scott

LOOKING BACK

In keeping with the usual procedure of life on January 15, 1930, I was born. The other great tragedy of the world that year was the success of Adolf Hitler in gaining one hundred and seven seats in the Reichstag.

The first years of my life were spent on a farm located near a creek, and under such conditions, I became fascinated by the ways of nature. I still enjoy spending as much time as possible in the out-of-doors.

At six I entered school at Eastville, and then at Cheriton, after the consolidation of the schools. I spent two years at Cheriton, and then received the thrill of entering high school.

I have been quite fortunate during my high school life and have enjoyed the privileges of holding offices in school work. My junior year I served on the newspaper staff, the Annual staff, and as class treasurer. This, my last year in high school, I was chosen president of the Good Citizens' Club and class president. I am again on the staff of "The Torch."

As my high school days draw to a close, I do hope that in my small way I have given some service to the school and some happiness to those with whom I have worked.

Robert Henderson

THE FIRST HUNDRED YEARS ARE THE HARDEST

On a bleak February day in 1930, something happened to my mother and father that changed the entire course of their lives--me! I came along hand in hand with the Depression (I hope that doesn't prove any thing).

When I was five years old, I was operated on for appendicitis. (Speaking of operations!!) I had the most wonderful time then that I have ever had in my life. The nurses used to congregate in my room. I was such a "dear little thing." (My, how I have changed!)

When I started to school, I made quite an enviable record. I was late almost every day. I will admit it was hard--but I managed. Since I've been going to Northampton, I've only missed the bus about fifty per cent of the time, which is really an accomplishment for me.

Thinking back over my life to date, I can't help wondering if the next seventeen years will be as much fun as the last seventeen.

Immediately after commencement--wonderful word--I expect to be moving away from the Shore, but the Eastern Shore, particularly Northampton High School, will always have a special place in my heart.

Elaine Kellam

BIG BOY

I, Vaughn Rue, weighing eleven pounds and eleven ounces, was born April 11, 1930. I was born griping (so they say), and I haven't stopped since.

When I was young I was a very good little boy. I was good until I started to school and met the Willis Wharf bunch. They taught me how to be mean. (Confidentially, they made a good job of it.)

When I was ten years of age I got a job delivering papers. This was a mistake, because whenever I would go down to the Wharf I would absolutely have to go swimming. This made me late delivering papers, but it never seemed to make me late for supper. I can't imagine why! After I fired myself from the paper job, I started staying down at the beach. I practically lived down there for three or four summers.

A few boys and I built ourselves a cabin at the beach and named it the "Ditney Inn." The only trouble with this was that we had mice and rats. We have wonderful parties and terrific times at the beach.

I have had much fun this last year playing football, even though I did not play too much. I hope to graduate this year if my teachers are kind and stay in the right mood, especially Mr. Wynne and Miss Palmer.

Vaughn Rue

ODE TO A MOVING VAN

On a cold thirty-first day of January in 1929, I was born in Nassawadox. I grew a beard at the ripe old age of three days. I looked like an ape--or so I've been told.

My early childhood was spent moving from the Shore to Fort Point, Massachusetts, a beach on Boston Bay, to Wellsville, New York, and back again to the Shore. I have enjoyed moving; although it has meant leaving some of my best friends, there has always been the joy of making new ones.

My hobbies are building model airplanes and photography. I have just built a plane with a small gasoline engine, but I have not flown it yet. I became interested in photography as a result of my membership in the Chemology Science Club. I was elected president of the club for this year. A few of my pictures were used in the Chemology Club exhibit at a recent Science Club Fair in Williamsburg, Virginia.

When I get my college degree at William and Mary, I would like to be a naturalist. I have always enjoyed studying plants and animals. Biology is one of my favorite subjects.

I am looking forward to Commencement, but I cannot help wishing that I did not have to say "good-by" to the friends I have made since I came to Northampton in my Sophomore year.

YOUTH SERVICE ORGANIZATION

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF Y. S. O.

THE WORK OF THE YOUTH ORGANIZATION

Four years ago the Youth Service Organization was organized at Northampton High School for the sole purpose of providing entertainment for the students of this school, as well as for others. In the past four years the club has made great progress.

During the school term of 1946-47 we have had dances as often as possible, which have been well attended by the students from this school, and by those from other schools. One day of each month, usually on Thursday, there has been an assembly. These assemblies have not always been religious. At two of the assemblies we have invited professional speakers to talk to us.

Another important function of this organization is to sponsor the March of Dimes Drive each year. We are proud to say that this year a total of $104.51 was collected, which is the highest total amount that has been contributed since 1944-45 when there was a total of $176.45.

We hope that the students of Northampton High School have enjoyed both the night entertainments and the assemblies that have been put on by this club.

The officers of the Y. S. O. this year are as follows:

President . . . . . Margaret Mapp
Vice-President . . . . . Julian Scott
Secretary . . . . . Rosa Dennis
Treasurer . . . . . Randolph Walker
Program Chairman . . . . . Joyce Killmon

CONTESTANTS IN THE INTRA-STATE HIGH SCHOOL LITERARY CONTESTS

ACTIVITIES OF THE GOOD CITIZENS' CLUB

The purpose of the Good Citizens' Club is to develop an interest in public speaking and the desire to investigate the sources of information which aid one in becoming an intelligent citizen. For the past year the members of this organization have participated in various programs, such as tests on current events, debates, readings, and public speeches.

From about twenty-five contestants the following members of the club were selected to participate in intra-state contests at William and Mary College, April 12, and at the University of Virginia, April 26:

Reading: Catherine Foley and Malvin Moore
Orations: Rosa Dennis and Randy Warren
Debate: Affirmative--Burleigh Wilkins, Jeanette Underhill, and Margaret Brown
Negative--Nancy Ward, Phyllis Stevenson, and Robert Nordstrom

The subject for debate was, Resolved: That the Federal Government Should Provide a System of Compulsory Medical Care for the People of the United States.

Randy Warren talked on the subject, "A New American Foreign Policy," and Rosa Dennis talked on the subject, "Fame, the Thirst of Youth." Selections were provided in reading by the judges at the college of William and Mary and at the University of Virginia.

HAIL TO THE SCIENCE CLUB

The Chemology Club has had a very successful 1946-47 session. It has completed many worthwhile accomplishments and has been able to carry on social activities too.

On March 22, fifteen of the members went to Williamsburg where they attended a Science Fair Open House at which they had a photography exhibit.

On March 27, the club had an oyster roast on the school grounds. The faculty was invited, each member of the club brought a guest, and there were guests from the State Department of Education who filmed part of a movie entitled, Oysters.

Through the work of Science Club members, and help of the other clubs, we have been able to add to our library of records.

Perhaps the largest and most important achievement of our club this year has been the making of all the group pictures which appear in the annual. We owe all this credit to our club sponsor, Mr. Burleigh Turner, Jr., and to the Photography Committee.

Many of the most active members will leave this year as they are seniors. However, we hope the club will have continued success.

This year the Red Cross collected contributions totaling $131.11 during the Membership Drive. It also participated in the Tuberculosis Bangle Sale, helped the Y. S. O. in the March of Dimes Drive, and collected clothes for Bundle Day, March 17, 1947.

The Junior Red Cross organization is essential in the activities of any school.

AN EVENTFUL YEAR IN ATHLETICS

The athletic program of our high school has begun to take on new meaning. In the past year a league has been organized to govern all pupils for qualification in any inter-school athletic activities. Fortunately, the school board has begun to take an active part in supporting all athletics in general. This interest has been gratefully received by all concerned. Organization, which has been lacking, is now evident in all of our sports. Through the above media and other inspirations, the students of our school have shown much more enthusiasm in school support than heretofore.

Northampton High School is now off to a good start in football. Much valuable experience has been gained from the seven games which we have played this year. Our supply of athletic equipment has increased from practically nothing to that necessary to equip pupils adequately to participate in games. Everyone is looking forward to great football seasons to come.

The first night game played on the shore was between N. H. S. and Onancock at Onley. This proved to everyone the need of lighting facilities. With such facilities we would increase our support from those outside of the school.

Twenty-one players on our football squad received letters and were initiated into our newly organized Monogram Club. At the conclusion of the football season the players and cheer-leaders were entertained at a beautifully arranged banquet given by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Clark.

Cheer-leaders for the past year caused more concern than any other item. But no one can deny that no other school has ever had a more loyal group of pretty girls to cheer their school on to victory. The cheer-leaders were voted in as honorary members of the Monogram Club.

Through the efforts of the newly organized league, all the high schools in the two counties will now be in the same league. The winner of the league title will be the champion of the two counties.

A Tennis Club in the school was organized and much enthusiasm was shown by all avid tennis fans. A tennis tournament for the boys' singles championship was held around the first of May. The winner of this tournament received a trophy to represent his skill in the sport.

We wish to extend our hearty thanks to Mr. Shelton for the support and help he has given us throughout the year. On coaching the football and baseball teams, he did an excellent job. Purchasing the trophy for the tennis "champ" was another fine thing he did for athletics here at Northampton.

The girls also were very busy this year. Mrs. Virginia Waltman succeeded Miss Blackwell as girls' athletic director after Christmas. In the fall, the girls organized a basketball team and played games with Onancock, Atlantic, and Central. Since the game was new to most of the girls, and they had had time for very little training, they lost these games, even though they played hard. After this year's experience, the girls feel that they will be better players next year and hope to win their games.

Truly this year has been an eventful one in athletics.

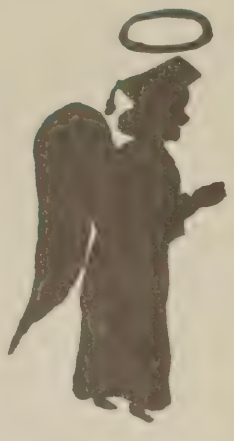
A PERFECT SENIOR CLASS WOULD HAVE



Margaret Mapp's speed and accuracy in typing.

Joyce Killmon's knack for cheer-leading.

Rita Jarvis' beautiful "raven-wing" hair.

Margaret Brown as its high "I. Q."

Warren Clark as its football captain.

Gwen Downing's lilting alto voice.

The witty and "nervy" John Widgen.

A good sport like Belvin Camden.

Howard Scott's quiet and helpful manner.

Sonny Moore as our class reader (Ri-ta).

Short Bobby Nordstrom's ability to lead.

The Kellam (Elaine) girl with the Iturbi talent.

Nancy Ward's sweet smile that attracts everyone.

The artist and co-worker, Gloria Flax.

Long-legged and industrious (?) Vaughn Rue.

The note of originality characteristic of Margret Bull.

Stylish and model-like Lucy Addison.

Tom Burton's shooting everything he sees (with a camera).

Shorthand's "giggling girl," Marion Scanlan.

The neat and shy daintiness of Glenna Elliott.

Llewellyn Mapp's thinking that all verbs are "photo verbs."

Frances "Lauren" Bradford's black piercing eyes.

The height of Arnold Carpenter (six feet) that causes all girls to look up to him.

Crow Mapp's ability as a famous "hooky player" and honorary member of the "Crap Club."

Phyllis Stevenson's captivating personality.

Rosa Dennis's freckles and yard wide pink bow of ribbon.

Bobby Harris (our Humphrey Bogart) as "Love's Number One" man.

The likable disposition of Jean Smith.

The demure and sweet manner belonging to Jeanette Underhill.

The mathematical ability of Randy Warren.

The Perfect Senior Class would have--the entire N. H. S. Class of '47.

CAN YOU IMAGINE?

Robert Nordstrom as a football player?
Lloyd Cutler not slapping people on the back?
Glenna Elliott without Audrey Ames?
Margaret Brown getting a "C" in anything?
Rita Jarvis with blonde hair?
Vaughn Rue with a girlish giggle?
Tom Burton and Llewellyn Mapp with a camera?
Sonny Moore six feet tall?
Belvin Camden not being a good sport?
Nancy Ward without that "Ipana" smile?
Charlotte Upshur looking demure?

Jeanette Underhill going out with anyone but Ned Doughty?
Gwen Downing being afraid of horses?
Howard Scott not being liked by everyone?
Elizabeth Phillips biting her fingernails?
Arnold Carpenter being five feet tall?
Margaret Mapp with straight hair?
Bobby Harris with a new love?
"Bo" Gunter not knowing his History?
Frances Bradford talking back to Mr. Wynne?
"Crow" Mapp as a preacher?
Rosa Dennis without her bangs?
Lucy Addison with mis-matched skirt and sweater?
James Marshall on first base?
Charles Williams working?
Marion Scanlan without her giggle?
Robert Henderson not being a farmer?
Pauline Elliott without her lipstick?
Elaine Kellam without a piano?
Garland Gladden without the nickname "Mule"?
Margret Bull asking people to call her "Peggy"?
Margaret Crocket with short hair?
Joe Smith dating a girl?
Robert Outten not being interested in agriculture?
Johnny Crumb in the Glee Club?
Jean Smith always being wide awake?

WAITING FOR THE CARGO

The day is done, and the darkness
Falls from the wings of Night,
As a feather is wafted downward
From an eagle in his flight.

And the night shall be filled with music,
And the cares, that infest the day,
Shall fold their tents, like the Arabs,
And as silently steal away.
